

If after speaking with one of our clinicians you decide that you would benefit from seeing a counselor face-to-face, you will receive a referral to a provider in your area. We'll encourage you to make an appointment right away to get the support you need.

You have access to a full range of services designed to help you with issues related to child and elder care, adoption, education and more. Visit MagellanHealth.com or call your toll-free program number to speak with a consultant and receive information and licensed referrals to providers and resources in your area to meet your needs.

Everyone needs help from time to time.

It's often the predictable events and transitions in our lives—things like starting a new career, marriage, the birth of a child, or buying a house—that find us feeling unprepared to cope.

Whether you're looking for information on health and wellness topics or you're ready to seek personalized assistance, your program can help. Your program offers brief, solution-focused resources for all types of life issues.

Easy access to services

Easy to find, confidential assistance is available every hour of every day. This program is offered by your employer at no cost to you and, depending on your program, to your spouse and other members of your household.

Visit us online or call the toll-free number in this brochure for information, resources, referrals and support on a wide range of issues. Our professional staff can explain your program, help you assess your needs and direct you to the appropriate services.

"My program is always there for me, whether I need help with my kids or a new perspective on how to advance in my career."
